DCYSC Coaches, Players and Spectators Code of Conduct

Note: All players and their parents must sign below before their first game to be eligible to play.

All registered soccer players and coaches are required to:

- Abide by the laws of the game
- Treat referees, coaches and other players with respect
- Refrain from using abusive or vulgar language
- Refrain from mouthing off to referees, spectators and other players
- Refrain from wearing any jewelry while practicing or playing

As the parent or spectator of a DCYSC player, I understand and agree that I will be ejected from any DCYSC, SAY or EISA venue where games are being held for any of the following reasons at the sole discretion of any DCYSC, SAY or EISA board member of field monitor:

- Using foul or abusive language
- Using threatening actions or words
- Physical contact with a player, spectator or referee (and charges will be filed)
- Use of alcohol or drugs or displaying actions that indicate an individual may be under the influence drugs or alcohol
- Any unsportsmanlike conduct directed toward a referee or club official

Player Name Player Signature Parent ('s) Signature